

Robert Fred Weicker, Former Member, Coquitlam, BC

Information was received by the Association regarding Mr Weicker's guilty plea to a charge of tax evasion under the Income Tax Act and referred to the Investigation Committee of the Association. The Investigation Committee commenced an investigation of the matter to determine if the nature or circumstances of the offence rendered Mr Weicker unsuitable for membership.

In lieu of continuing the investigation and potentially proceeding to a discipline inquiry, Mr Weicker signed a "resignation agreement" with the Investigation Committee. Pursuant to that agreement, Mr Weicker resigned his membership in the Association and agreed not to apply for reinstatement of his membership for at least two years. On any application for reinstatement, Mr Weicker will have to satisfy Council that he is of good character and good repute and that his conviction does not render him unsuitable for membership.

*Copies of the consent order and resignation agreement can be found on the APEGBC website under "Enforcement and Discipline."
